GENERAL COMMITTEE

The present Exhibition has been generously provided by a committee of citizens of New York, as a means of public entertainment and instruction, and for the advancement of the deserving objects of the new Society of Decorative Art, which aims to provide instruction for women in design and production in all the various art industries, and to promote the exhibition and sale of their works.

The ladies and gentlemen interested in the enterprise have freely despoiled their walls and cabinets of their rarest pictures and their most costly and treasured examples of art fabrics, choice selections from the foreign and American schools of painting, and rare and beautiful works of dainty device and execution in bric-a-brac of all periods, in mediæval furniture, armor, tapestries, embroideries, laces, fans, carvings, draperies, gems, bronzes, china, pottery and all articles of household adornment, the whole forming a most unique display, which will no doubt be greatly enjoyed by all whose privilege it may be to see it, and which it is hoped will materially assist the generous efforts of the ladies who are striving to advance the important work of the society which it is sought to benefit.

The Exhibition will be open for a short season only, as the various exhibits must soon be returned to their possessors.

TOWN TOPICS.

Mercie's "David," is one of the finest models of youthful beauty modern art has produced.

"Une Bouquetiere," a bronze bust by Aizelin, is one of the most recently imported works.

The new Faun, by C. Marioton, of Paris, is one of the most interesting bronze figures recently published.

A reproduction of the charming figure of Youth, from the tomb of the lamented Regnault, is exhibited at Tiffany's.

Pink and black Pearls, Catseyes, Moonstones, Asterias, Hyacinths and other rare Jewels not widely known, are much sought after by persons of taste.

Messrs. TIFFANY & CO., devote the whole of their second floor to the display of their magnificent collection of Bronzes and other artistic metal work.

Messrs. TIFFANY & CO's large stock of Fans includes a great variety of elegant paintings upon kid and silk, and some novel combinations of lace with painted medallions.

The Santa Maria of E. Delaplanche, now on exhibition at Tiffany's, is an interesting and impressive work. The features are of a darker shade than the body of the figure, and the effect of the remarkable drapery is heightened by touches of gilding upon the high lights.

The fashion of wearing tiger's claws set as articles of personal ornament, has extended from England to this country. A beautiful Scarf Pin at Tiffany's has a claw mounted with a delicate tracery of gold, and a miniature tiger of gold, exquisitely sculptured, standing on all fours.

Messrs. TIFFANY & CO., the great Jewelers of New York City, have issued a little pamphlet, for complimentary distribution that cannot fail to be of service to persons having gifts to select. It contains a condensed account of each of their departments, and lists of articles appropriate for presents. They offer to mail it to any address on request.

Messrs. TIFFANY & CO., have made extensive preparations for the approaching CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS. Their stock of Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, Artistic Bronzes, Keramics, Bric-a-Brac, Stationery and elegant articles of vertu is the largest and most varied ever exhibited.

After December the 10th until Christmas, the establishment will be kept open during the evenings, and the rare opportunity afforded of inspecting this brilliant collection of artistic goods by gaslight.

UNION SQUARE, NEW YORK.

TIFFANY & CO. will send to any address, on request, a little pamphlet they have recently published giving a short account of each of their departments, lists of articles appropriate for presents for Ladies, Gentlemen and Children, and blank spaces on each page for memoranda.

"UNDER THE LILACS,"

By LOUISA M. ALCOTT,
A SERIAL STORY FOR GIRLS,

"TOWER-MOUNTAIN," by Gustavus Frankenstein,
A "ROBINSON CRUSOE" STORY.

BEGIN IN THE DECEMBER NUMBER OF ST. NICHOLAS.

EDITION, 100,000 COPIES.

Some idea of the attractions offered in the CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY NUMBER of ST. NICHOLAS, of which 100,000 copies will be issued,

*Christmas comes but once a year,
When it comes it brings good cheer.*

may be gained from the following: There are poems by HENRY W. LONGFELLOW and WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT; a fine hitherto unpublished sketch of Boy Life, by the Late THEODORE WINTHROP; and a short story by the author of "ALICE IN WONDERLAND;" a new fairy story, "SWEET MARJORAM DAY," by FRANK R. STOCKTON, "THE PETERKINS, CHARADES," by LUCRETIA P. HALE; a poetic riddle by Dr. J. G. HOLLAND, and a comparison between the manners of young folks in old times and nowadays, by GAIL HAMILTON.

Of the story element, the brightest feature is the beginning of the new serial by MISS ALCOTT, entitled "UNDER THE LILACS," with illustrations by MARY HALLOCK FOOTE.

"The story is quiet and lovely in feeling, full of life, and of quaint, jolly bits of childhood. It is characteristic of MISS ALCOTT IN HER BEST VEIN; but it is not intended for young readers of vitiated taste who need, or think they need, sensational stories. The BOY IN THE STORY is a character that will charm all BOYS fully as much as its girl readers.

The Christmas Number contains also the opening of a new SERIAL STORY FOR BOYS, a tale of tropical life, by GUSTAVUS FRANKENSTEIN, entitled "TOWER-MOUNTAIN," admirably illustrated by the artists Moran and Kelly; A PORTRAIT OF MISS ALCOTT, with a sketch of her life; several poems by TWO LITTLE AMERICAN GIRLS; a PLAY and a CHRISTMAS CAROL (set to music); and a half dozen complete short stories, bright, funny, exciting and pathetic, &c., &c.

Subscription Price, $3.00 a Year, postage paid. Single copies, 25 cents each. Sold by all Book-Sellers and News-Dealers.

SCRIBNER & CO., 743 Broadway, New-York.

The NEW COVER is by the English Artist, WALTER CRANE, —the famous designer of "The Baby's Opera."

ST. NICHOLAS FOR 1878.

There will be contributions by a DAUGHTER OF THE FAMOUS PETER PARLEY, and a Letter to Young Americans by GEORGE MACDONALD.

The "HOW" SERIES of instructive papers, by various authors, will tell HOW to bind your own books; HOW they mine coal; HOW to enjoy yourselves at home; HOW to be an agreeable guest; HOW to entertain company; HOW to be a carpenter; HOW to make an ice-boat; HOW to build a house; HOW India Rubber is gathered; HOW matches are made; HOW money is made; HOW mackerel are caught; HOW they laid the Atlantic cable; HOW they mine in California; HOW they work in the tea-country; HOW to be a parlor magician; etc. There will be also a series of stories and sketches of Foreign Life.

ART AND CANDLES.

Among the many attractive things in the way of Decorative Art are the PAINTED CANDLES.

They are an adornment to the Parlor, Ballroom, or Boudoir, and the designs and work put upon them are such as to stand the same criticism as painting upon canvas. They consist of Decorations to match Interiors, Furniture (Antique or Modern), Wall Ornaments, Original Drawings, Birds, Figures, Flowers, Bouquets, Monograms—for Weddings or individuals, Family Crests, Silhouettes, in fact everything Artistic.

The first to introduce these articles to the American public were the

ALLAN HAY Co.,

In their Salesroom are to be found the choicest patterns. The newest features among them are the Egyptian, Persian, Turkish and Chinese designs, in character and hieroglyphics, with interpretations, which will be prized by the Scholar as well as admired for beauty of execution.

The ALLAN HAY Co. begs to advise parties in quest of these goods to give them a call, as their importations are large and they mean to lead in this business. They give special attention to ornamenting candles for Parties, Weddings, etc. Also, for the Church, Ecclesiastical Designs and Latin Inscriptions.

We call special attention to our Tinted Candles, such as Ladies' Boudoir (a twisted pattern), in pink, green, lavender, and assorted. Also, Field's Self-Fitting Ends, in plain white and colors.

DECORATIVE ART IN DRESS.

Not many ladies stop to consider the artistic taste displayed in the production of a variety of articles used in their personal adornment, which, from their necessity, seem at first to possess no artistic qualities.

It requires no little talent to originate the design of a graceful tie, to blend shades harmoniously in a many colored ribbon, to sketch the pattern of a delicate lace to form easy folds in a fichu or bow, and to produce a becoming as well as a beautiful bonnet.

AITKEN, SON & CO. conduct a business establishment for the manufacture and sale of whatever articles of this description taste or fashion make desirable in ladies' dress. They employ competent assistants in all their departments, and their first consideration is excellence of design and workmanship, and then to place the result before their customers at the lowest possible cost.

The present Exhibition has been generously provided by a committee of citizens of New York, as a means of public entertainment and instruction, and for the advancement of the deserving objects of the Society of Decorative Art, which aims to provide instruction for women in design and production in all the various art industries, and to promote the exhibition and sale of their works.

The ladies and gentlemen interested in the enterprise have freely despoiled their walls and cabinets of their rarest pictures and their most costly and treasured examples of art fabrics, choice selections from the foreign and American schools of painting, and rare and beautiful works of dainty device and execution in bric-a-brac of all periods, in mediæval furniture, armor, tapestries, embroideries, carvings, draperies, gems, bronzes, porcelain, pottery and all articles of household adornment, the whole forming a most unique display, which will no doubt be greatly enjoyed by all whose privilege it may be to see it, and which it is hoped will materially assist the generous efforts of the ladies who are striving to advance the important work of the society which it is sought to benefit.

The Exhibition will be open for a short season only, as the various exhibits must soon be returned to their possessors.

“The same evening I saw, at the residence of your compatriot, Mr. Stebbins, who inhabits my Mauresque House in the Avenue de Friedland, the only portrait ever painted by Fortuny. It is the wife of a Spanish Secretary of Embassy at Rome. She is beautiful, but the painting is far more beautiful than she. Fortuny was Velasquez come to earth again. To think that this gre atgenius, who held the secret of light in his hand, has been cast back into eternal night because the Roman fever passed by his studio! When will another Velasquez be born?”

"The great Assemblage, however, was at the Governor's house, whither repaired all the burghers of New Amsterdam, with their wives and daughters, pranked out in their best attire, On this occasion the good Peter was devoutly observant of the pious Dutch rite of kissing the womenkind for a happy New Year, and it is traditional that Anthony, the trumpeter, who acted as gentleman usher, took toll of all that were young and handsome. * * * This venerable custom, thus happily introduced, was followed with such zeal, by high and low, that on New Year's Day, during the reign of Peter Stuyvesant, New Amsterdam became the most be-kissed community in all Christendom.—Irving's Knickerbocker History of New York."

MESSRS. TIFFANY & CO.,

UNION SQUARE,

Invite an inspection of the most extensive and varied collection of artistic and useful goods they have ever shown, including many articles of their manufacture similar to those displayed at Paris, which have attracted admiring attention throughout Europe, and won the Grand Prize at the EXPOSITION UNIVERSELLE.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The application of Silver to the useful arts is being rapidly developed in the United States, and chiefly by the celebrated house of TIFFANY & Co.—London Week, April 13, 1878.

TIFFANY'S exhibit is attracting universal attention for beauty and originality of design, and perfection of workmanship. Nothing of the kind in the Exhibition approaches their models.—N. Y. Herald Cable Despatch, May 12, 1878.

It is a bold thing for Americans to come to Europe with an art display, but we have no hesitation in saying that Messrs. TIFFANY & Co. can hold their own against French manufacturers, both in design and execution.—Paris American Register, May 25, 1878.

Now the Japanese work has become the rage on this side, and the Japanese themselves have been the first to show their appreciation of it by ordering specimens of it for a native museum, TIFFANY & Co., it seems with their superior mechanical appliances, have carried the manufacture beyond the power or even the conception of its Asiatic Inventors.—New York World Paris correspondent, July 11, 1878.

Conspicuous in the American Department shows the splendid exhibit of Messrs. TIFFANY & Co., whose Silverware is incontestably the finest in point of design and workmanship in the Exhibition. * * * Members of the firm of Christofle, of Paris, and Elkington & Co., of London, have already come to inspect this display, and frankly do justice to its supremacy.—Lucy H. Hooper, Correspondent New York Graphic, May 25, 1878.

In addition to the sales of articles from the TIFFANY Exhibit to the Prince of Wales, they have found purchasers for their superb wares in the persons of the Shah, Prince Leopold, of England; Arch-duke Ludwig, Comte de Flanders, Prince Radziwill, and Baron and Baroness de Rothschild. The Berlin Museum has ordered a duplicate set of the gold ornaments from Curium.—New York Herald Cable Despatch, June 16, 1878.

An important American industry is the manufacture of Electro-plated Ware. A quarter of a century ago fine plated ware was imported from London or Paris; now it is common to send whole rvices of American plate to Europe. TIFFANY & Co. some time since organized a manufactory for the production of Plated Ware of a very high grade, and it is now recognized as not only the most elegant, but the most economical ware in use.

During the last fortnight I have had frequent and special opportunities to examine the great Exposition, at the Champ de Mars, and especially to observe the representation made by the United States. * * * The display of TIFFANY & Co. is not excelled, and hereafter will rank with the leading works of the world, both in design and skilled workmanship.—Extract of a Letter from General A. T. Goshorn to Murat Halstead, Editor of the Cincinnati Commercial, July 26, 1878.

The industrial art of the United States finds its chief exponent in TIFFANY & Co., of New York. This firm manufactures Silver Ware on such a large scale as characterises most of the industrial establishments of America; but it is not the size of the establishment, nor the bulk of the work that induces me to speak with particularity of their work, so much as the originality of their processes, and the remarkable technical advance in artistic metal work. Paris Correspondent Vienna Deutsche Zeitung, June 24, 1878.

"It is a modern mistake to assume that the production of good silver work demands neither special training nor high artistic power. It will not suffice to study old models, however excellent, unless fresh inspiration be gathered from nature, assimilated by the trained mind, and wrought out by the skillful hand into forms of fresh and seemly design. * * * We confess we were surprised and ashamed to find at the Paris Exhibition that a New York firm, TIFFANY & Co., had beaten the old country and the old world in domestic silver plate."—London Spectator, September 21, 1878.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY.

ART FEATURES.

THE Publishers of SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY desire to call the attention of all interested in Art to the claims of that Magazine to rank among the leading Art periodicals. Although the special Art features of the MONTHLY are incidental to its general design as "a magazine for the people," and not a magazine of any single specialty, such attention has been paid to the department of illustration, in all its particulars of designing, engraving, and printing, and so many papers have appeared and are still to be published, directly on art subjects, that it is claimed that SCRIBNER has become in reality a MAGAZINE OF ART.

Among the articles and illustrations of special interest to artists, art students and connoisseurs, which are now in preparation, may be mentioned the following: The article in October number on "The Art Schools of New York," by W. C. Brownell, accompanied by engraved examples of the work of the students in the Academy, the Cooper Union and the Art Students' League, will be followed by a paper of great interest to Art Students on the Philadelphia Academy, and its Schools of Art, and Illustrated Articles will appear soon on our Younger American Painters and Sculptors. In an early number one of our younger artists will print his notes on the Art of the Paris Exhibition; and a general Illustrated Account of the Exhibition will be given by Russell Sturgis. An Essay on Leonardo da Vinci by Clarence Cook (whose "House Beautiful" first appeared in SCRIBNER'S), with Thirty-two Illustrations, will appear in the January Number—the first in his Series on the Old Masters.

Two papers, written and illustrated by members of the New York Tile Club, showing the Club "at work" and "on the tramp," will be unique contributions to Magazine Literature. The Portraits of American Poets by Mr. Wyatt Eaton and Mr. T. Cole will be printed as occasional Frontispieces, during the coming year, on tinted paper made especially for the purpose; also, accompanying the papers on the Poets there will be illustrations made by Frank Lathrop, Homer Martin, and R. Riordon.

Recent numbers of the Magazine and numbers to come contain the work of such artists as R. Swain Gifford, Mary Hallock Foote, Thomas Moran, John La Farge, Louis C. Tiffany, Walter Shirlaw, F. Dielman, Winslow Homer, W. M. Chase, Wyatt Eaton, Edwin A. Abbey, C. S. Reinhart, Sanford R. Gifford, Homer Martin, Thomas Eakins, Francis Lathrop, Julian Weir, Will H. Low, J. W. Champney, F. Hopkinson Smith, J. E. Kelly; the Sculptors St. Gaudens, O'Donovan and Warner; Arthur Quartley, E. Wimbredge, R. Riordon, Walter Paris, Allen C. Redwood, Alfred Kappes, Charles Y. Turner, F. S. Church, John Bolles, W. McKay Laffan, Miss Curtis, George Inness, Jr., Miss Fidelia Bridges, James Beard, Jr., Charles Vanderhoff, Henry Sandham of Montreal, Frank B. Mayer, Richard Gross, Miss rownscomb, Granville Perkins, Howard Pyle, J. H. Mills, Charles Ward, Walter Brown, H. Farney, Henry Muhrmann, H. P. Wolcott, and Jervis McEntee. Among the Engravers are Henry Marsh, T. Cole, F. S. King, John P. Davis, J. G. Smithwick, Frank French, David Nichols, F. Juengling, Miss Powell, J. A. Bogert, Henry Wolf, R. Muller, A. D. Bobbett, Robert Varley, and E. Heineman.

"HAWORTH'S."

"Haworth's," by Frances Hodgson Burnett, the Author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's," began in the November Number, and will be continued through the Magazine year. This is the longest story Mrs. Burnett has yet written, and it is in some respects an advance on "That Lass o' Lowrie's." The scene is laid in Lancashire, the hero being a young inventor of American birth. It will be illustrated by Mr. Dielman and Mr. Bolles. Mr. Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen's story of "Falconberg" is also now being published in SCRIBNER, and on its conclusion a Story of New Orleans, by George W. Cable will be begun. The Magazine for the year will also contain articles by John Muir, the Naturalist, on the California Lakes, Mountains, &c., &c.; papers on Brazil, European Universities, The South, Canada of To-day, American Archaeology, &c., &c. Price, 35 cents a number. Yearly subscriptions, $4. For sale by all Booksellers.

SCRIBNER & CO., New York.

A BOON FOR FAMILIES: ASHTON'S FACTORY FILLED SALT.

In no article of daily need in our homes have we been so poorly served as in the inexpensive essential Salt; and this has been largely due to the fact that the only perfect salt manufactured, ASHTON'S, has been obtainable only in sacks of 224 lbs. each, restricting its use to large consumers. The American agents of the genuine Ashton's Factory Filled Salt (attempts have been made to counterfeit it), announce that they have made arrangements for its importation in family sacks, (56 lbs.) designed for HOUSEHOLD USES.

Every reputable salt dealer and grocer should be required by patrons to keep Ashton's in the family sacks, and they will do so if consumers will no longer put up with inferior, unwholesome brands of salt, into the manufacture of which impurities have passed.

Every product of culinary art may be made more healthful and palatable by the use of an absolutely pure salt, now that the only wholesome salt is being imported in family packages. If your retail dealer does not keep it, apply to

"L'ART."

A WEEKLY INTERNATIONAL REVIEW QUARTERLY
VOLUME. $32 PER ANNUUM.

"There is some monotony in praising each successive portion of a periodical as it appears with an absolutely equal cordiality; but the evenness of merit in L'Art makes this uniformity of commendation a duty"—The Nation.

"America is so destitute of illustrated works which can at all compare with L'Art that she cannot do better than study and enjoy this French publication. Certainly there is no other means by which so many valuable pictures can be obtained at so small a price."—The Christian Union.

"Sumptuous in paper and type, lavish in illustrations, and with critical and explanatory text of singular merit; the most famous of modern art journals."—N. Y. Times.
